

Quality and Academic Accreditation Unit

The Quality and Academic Accreditation Unit has been approved by the Faculty Council Board to manage the policies and regulations and achieve the quality at the institutional level as well as the program level.

Unit Vision

Achieving the quality standards and practices in the faculty in accordance with the standards of quality and academic accreditation.

Unit Mission

Applying the internal quality management in the faculty to gain the academic accreditation from reputable and distinguished national, regional and international commissions.

Unit Goals

Enhancement of the Quality Process in the Faculty through application of the national framework of the Quality standards of the NCAAA.

Internal Quality Management System

The Quality and Academic Accreditation Unit represents the entity through which the internal evaluation and review is carried out to ensure the quality of the educational, research and service activities of the faculty and the elements that affect it and improve the level of its performance.

Unit tasks

- Implementing the policy of the quality assurance system accredited at the university and implementing its objectives within the faculty program.
- Ensuring equal application of quality policies and practices at the level of the two parts of male section and female section.
- Supervising the faculty internal evaluation processes and coordinating with the Deanship of Quality and Academic Accreditation at the University.
- Ensure the closure of the quality cycle within the faculty considering the guidelines of the Deanship of Quality and Academic Accreditation at the University.

- Follow up the implementation of improvement plans of program in the faculty.
- Ensuring the involvement of the relevant students, graduates, employers, and the faculty members in the opinion of the faculty program and the use of its results in program development.
- Contribute to the dissemination of the culture and practices of quality, accreditation and quality management mechanisms in the faculty.
- Supervising the preparation and implementation of development plans for the faculty.
- Ensuring that the quality of teaching, learning, scientific research and community partnership processes is achieved at the faculty program.
- Ensuring the quality of course specifications.
- Ensuring the quality of course reports.
- Ensuring the quality of program specification.
- Reviewing and ensuring the quality of the results of key performance indicators and evaluating the program learning outcomes.
- Reviewing and ensuring the quality of the faculty annual report.
- Assessing the extent to which all documents and quality requirements are completed and archived.
- Create a database within the faculty about graduates, employers, and all related sectors with graduates.
- Measuring employer's trends and their satisfaction with program graduates.

Members of Quality and Academic Accreditation Unit

No.	Name	Position	E-mail address
1	Vice dean for development and quality (Prof. Mostafa Hussein)	Head of Unit	mhussein@bu.edu.sa
2	Dr. Karim Naghmouchi	Supervisor	knaghmouchi@bu.edu.sa
3	Dr. Hassan Samaha	Member	hsamaha@bu.edu.sa
4	Dr. Ahmed Algendy	Member	ahmed.m@bu.edu.sa
5	Dr. Leila Taher	Member	l.altaher@bu.edu.sa
6	Dr. Fatima Alzahra Gomaa	Member	fgomaa@bu.edu.sa

