

Curricula and Study Plans Committee:

- Preparing guidance manuals related to study plans and course specifications.
- Proposing new academic programs that meet the needs of the community and the labor market.
- Periodically reviewing and updating study plans in accordance with labor market requirements.
- Following up on improvement plans included in course reports.
- Reviewing course specifications and learning outcomes and ensuring their alignment with quality and academic accreditation standards issued by the Education and Training Evaluation Commission (ETEC).
- Documenting all procedures and data related to curricula and study plans.

